

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Deb Fillman Named Interim Director of the Bluegrass Music Hall of Fame & Museum

Board of Trustees Continue National Search for New Leader

Owensboro, Kentucky, July 31, 2024 – Deb Fillman has been named Interim Director of the Bluegrass Music Hall of Fame & Museum as the Board of Trustees continues a national search for a new Executive Director. After nine years, Chris Joslin recently stepped down as Executive Director, and a national search will continue to secure a replacement.

Board of Trustees chairman, Chris Love, commented, “We are extremely fortunate to have Deb to step into this position as we conduct the search for a new Executive Director. Deb and the staff at the Bluegrass Music Hall of Fame & Museum are all extremely dedicated and will do a fantastic job during this period. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I welcome Deb to her newly expanded role, and we are very excited for the future of this great organization.”

Interim Director Deb Fillman commented, “It’s a true honor to have the opportunity to lead the organization during this transition. Chris Joslin and the Board of Trustees spent a great deal of time setting the strategic direction for the organization, and I feel confident the board, staff, and our key partners will succeed in achieving the goals set forth in the plan.”
